

LUYOLO PALISO

Web Developer | User Interface Designer

PROFILE

As a young and vibrant entrant into the industry, my goal is to harness my skills and mould myself into the complete Web Developer and User Interface Designer I have always dreamt of becoming.

With my inquisitive nature, I am constantly searching for the appropriate solutions to any problems I may encounter.

I never rest on my laurels, and this is shown in my never-ending desire to continue learning. After my formal graduation, I have been going from strength to strength, looking to enhance the knowledge I have already acquired by taking on more educational material in order to upskill myself.

Without a doubt, I would be an asset in any team or environment I would be put in because of my adaptable personality and my willingness to learn.
